

opposed to the United States Constitution and Bill of Rights, federal law, the supreme law of this land to which even government entities take an oath of office. Ms. Harvick has a documented history of such allegations against her (reference article in the Houston Press, Fostering Abuse, Margaret Downing, March 2003).

Ms. Harvick has admitted to the existence of a recording of the aforementioned "interview/interrogation" (that was conducted under duress, threat, and coercion) under oath in court. Conversely, she told me under sworn testimony in the same court on May 09, 2012, Judge Conrad Moren presiding for Honorable Judge Lisa Millard, that she did not record the alleged interviews she conducted away from me on May 08, 2012. <sup>(with my son) g. d. d.</sup> I did not see or even hear my five year-old son's voice over the telephone for thirty-seven (37) interminable days and nights until the one-hour supervised visit at the Children's Assessment Center on June 13, 2012 that is all I have been afforded to date. Although bi-monthly visits on the second and fourth Wednesdays of the month are to continue with my son, whose first day of kindergarten we have been reading books about and envisioning for the last few years together, the Worrell family continues to block access and alienate my "inviolable," "fundamental," federally protected rights (and my son's) as a parent and naturally born citizen of the United States of America. Matt Worrell's ominous threat to me in my early pregnancy with our only child, "Watch what me and my family do to your life if you have this baby" combined with the cruel and psychotic threats to our son by
